

Syosset Street Fair: September 28, 2014

Volunteers of CMSA LI set up a booth at the Syosset Street Fair to reach out to community members and raise awareness of the role of case managers. The three volunteers pictured above listened to the personal stories of thirty different community members who are dealing with issues regarding a disability, healthcare and insurance. Their advice was well received by the community members.